CHICAGO:
CHAPMAN BROTHERS,
1887.

REUBEN REDMAN, a wealthy and highly esteemed resident of Scott Township, was born in Columblana County, Ohio, in 1837, being a son of Joseph and Margaretta (Miller) Redman, who were natives of Pennsylvania, but went to Ohio in 1806, with their parents. Joseph Redman was born in 1799, and his wife in 1804. He engaged in farming, which occupation he pursued until his death, which occurred while on a visit to Michigan, in December, 1878; his wife had died in May of the same year, at her home in Ohio. Both were members of the Lutheran Church.

Reuben Redman came to this county in 1863, and settled in Scott Township. In company with two other men he brought with him from Ohio 1,200 head of sheep, which he herded on the vacant lands of the county. The next year he brought out from Ohio 2,300 more sheep. The partnership continued until the fall of 1865, when it was dissolved, leaving Mr. Redman with 1,100 head. He continued in business alone until some time during the year 1866, when he sold part of his herd of sheep and bought a tract of land on section 2 of this township, and which now is one of the most finely improved farms in the county. Here is an elegant residence, built at a cost of $2,000, three ample barns, and numerous cattle sheds, his business having been principally that of raising, feeding and shipping cattle and hogs. He is also quite extensively engaged in the raising of fine stock, and has several high-grade Norman and Clyde colts, and two full-blooded French Norman horses, imported by Springer & Willard, of Oskaloosa, in 1885. He is also a breeder of Short-horn cattle, and has already fifteen head of fine thoroughbred animals in his herd, most of them selections from the fine herd of M. K. Prine & Son, of this county. It is his intention to continue this business in a moderate way, and to have none but the best breeds of animals. Mr. Redman takes a lively interest in the success of the Mahaska County Fair, of which he is a stockholder and Director.

The subject of our sketch was married, in February, 1866, to Miss Mary F. Elson, a native of Stark County, Ohio, who was a daughter of Richard and Sarah Ann (Brandon) Elson, natives of Virginia, the father born in 1797, and the mother in 1806. Richard Elson was in early days engaged in shipping merchandise by flatboat from Ohio to New Orleans, and in this business accumulated quite a fortune. He located in Ohio, on Big Sandy Creek, where he built a fine flouring-mill, and engaged extensively in sheep-raising. By prudent management of his two branches of business he added materially to his already ample fortune. He died at his home in Magnolia, Ohio, Aug. 28, 1879, aged eighty-two years. His wife, a member of the Christian Church, died March 21, 1840.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Redman have four children living and one deceased: Richard Elson, born Dec. 8, 1866, is a graduate of Oskaloosa Business College; Joseph C. was born Nov. 20, 1870; Mary K., April 26, 1873; Benjamin F., Sept. 26, 1876; Sarah, born Aug. 26, 1879, died Aug. 16, 1881.

Member of the Minerva Lutheran Church for Thirty years.

Josiah A. Redman was born at Bayard, Ohio, July 22d. 1841. Moved with his parents to his late residence west of town in October, 1850, where he resided with his parents until 18 years of age, when he became an apprentice at carriage making under John Haines, of Malvern, for three years, after which he worked at his trade for a short time at Piercton, Indiana. He soon enlisted in the Civil War in Co. B. 44th Ind. Vol. Inf. serving nearly three years being in several hard fought battles.

He was united in marriage October 4th, 1866, to Susannah Fimple to which union five children were born.

After the close of the war he engaged in carriage making in Minerva.

In March 1871 he moved to the farm where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was a man of sterling worth, a kind and loving husband and father, a consistent Christian and a good neighbor.

The high esteem in which he was held was attested by the large attendance at his funeral.

Politically Mr. Redman was a staunch Republican.

He was a member of Minerva Post G. A. R. which Order conducted their service at the grave.

He united with the Minerva Lutheran Church in early manhood and was a leading member having served in the Church council thirty years, and was chairman of the building committee while erecting the new edifice a few years ago.

Mr. Redman had been failing in health for some time and had been confined to his bed for three weeks prior to his death, October 14, 1905.

The deceased leaves a widow, one son, Morton S., at home, three daughters, Mrs. O. E. Worley, of Magnolia, Mrs. W. F. Lotz, of New Alexandria, Mrs. W. L. Brooks, of Connotton, one brother, Ruben, of Oskaloosa, Iowa, four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Foltz, of Bremen, Ind., Mrs. Susan Stonehill, of Bourbon, Ind., Mrs. Hannah Billings, of Indianola, Iowa, and Mrs. Annie Fimple, of Colon, Michigan, and four grand children.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Hedges, at the home Tuesday, Oct 17th, and the remains laid to rest in the Liberty cemetery.

The following attended the funeral from a distance: Mrs. Annie Fimple, of Colon, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Redman and son, William E., of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. John Redman, of Homeworth, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Freshley, of Alliance.

WANTS HIS MONEY

Publisher of the German Herold After Commissioners.

John A. Deindoerfer, publisher of the German Herold, will commenced mandamus proceedings in court to force the county commissioners to pay his bills for printing which had been ordered by the county recorder, county treasurer and county sheriff. The grounds, we believe, upon which the commissioners refuse to pay these bills are, that they were not ordered through the purchasing agent of the board.

An important point in this question, which it is hoped will be settled in this suit, is, whether the officials of this county out side of the commissioners' office, elected by the people and acting for the people, have a right to go into home printing offices, which employ Defiance labor and have their work done or whether the commissioners shall buy their supplies of some pet house in Toledo or other city. This county ought not to expend a dollar on

Last night 12 new were received and a number cations placed on file. To beneficial workings of the German society it is only necessary to the following figures:

Paid out for sick benefits since the organization of society on July 1, 1889
Paid out for books, rent, salaries, lig printing, appropriations, etc.....
Paid out on death claims.....

Total.....

Thus it can be seen that the fulfill its mission entirely, and increasing membership confirms assertion that our German-A citizens look at this institution with pride.

New Attorney

Attorney Albert E. Savoy, formerly of the Cincinnati bar, has opened an office in this city at 125 South Main street. It was announced today.

rites Friday for Mrs. Landis

Services for Mrs. Margaret Landis of 628 North Main street who died of complications yesterday in City Hospital will be held Friday, 3:30 p. m., at the Harrold Funeral Home. Interment will be made in Fountain cemetery.

Mrs. Landis was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Redman and the last one of eleven children. She was born at Six points in Wood County, O., and had resided at her late home for the last 35 years. She was well known in this vicinity where she had a host of friends and neighbors.

At the age of 16, she was united in marriage to Charles W. Richardson of Newark, O., who precedes her in death. Two daughters were born to this union, Mrs. Toynette Davidson of Detroit, and Mable Lackens who passed away August 24, 1935. One granddaughter Margaret Jane Lackens passed away September 25, 1934.

Mrs. Landis was married the second time to Peter Landis, who also preceded. She was a charter member of the order of Eastern Star. While not a member of any church, she was a regular attendant at the M. E. church until her health failed.

40 Per Cent of Taxes Now Paid

With $150,000 in June real estate taxes collected up to last evening, County Treasurer Tell Thompson said the amount represented about 40 per cent of the total due at this time in Hancock county. Payments have dwindled to less than $2,000 a day average recently. Thompson believes partly due to delay in the wheat harvest. Relatively few farmers have paid taxes this week, he said.

Deputy Treasurer Boyd Hutcheson was in Postoria yesterday to accept tax payments and returned last night with a total of $3600. At the same time the office in the courthouse received $2400 for a $6000 total yesterday.

Thompson has announced that he will continue to accept taxes until September 1.

Enjoy Lake Trip

A large number of Postorians accompanied members of the school band and orchestra on a lake trip to Canada yesterday. They boarded the steamer Chippewa at Sandusky and crossed Lake Erie to Kingsville, Ontario, returning last night.

Margaret Buessey Died Suddenly

Margaret J. Buessey died very suddenly this afternoon at her home 421 West Fremont street. Death was due to heart attack. The deceased is a sister of Mrs. Nellie Ellison. Coffin and funeral arrangements will be announced tomorrow.

HIRAM CIVIL WAR VET DIES

Death Friday afternoon removed one of Postage county's two remaining veterans of the Civil war when William Redman, 88, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, in Hiram township.

Mr. Redman, who came to live with his daughter three years ago, fought with the Union army in the Civil war. For many years he lived in the vicinity of Exeter, O., near the Indiana line, where he was a former merchant. He was born June 18, 1843 in Columbiana county.

John Ortle, post 80, of Alameda remains today as the only Civil war veteran in the county.

The only survivor of the aged Hiram township men is his daughter with whom he lived.

ANGOLA, INDIANA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1910

REV. SAMUEL W. REDMAN

Was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, March 6, 1828, and came to Steuben county, Indiana, about forty-five years ago. He was united in marriage with Ellen Hoffman, Dec. 21, 1848, and to them were born seven children, five sons and two daughters: Brenton, of Wayside, Nebraska; Judson, of Oswego, Kansas; Clarence, who departed this life April 19, 1881; Almyra, now Mrs. Meese, of Sturgis, Michigan; Lyman, of Benzonia, Mich.; Mary, now Mrs. Mitchell, of Ft. Wayne; and Howard, of Parsons, Kansas.

When about 16 years of age he learned the shoemaker trade, in which he engaged much of the time when not employed in the active ministry. When sixteen years of age he was converted, and united with the M. E. church, in which he remained several years. He felt called of God for special service in the church, receiving license to exhort, while yet a member of the M. E. church. He was received into the church of the United Brethren in Christ by Rev. J. Waldorf, about 50 years ago, and was ordained an elder by Bishop J. J. Glosbrenner in the old church north of town, about 40 years since. For about twenty years he traveled as an itinerant, until his hearing became deficient, but often occupied the pulpit in a local capacity. As a preacher he was above the average. A deep thinker, logical in his deductions and forcible in delivery. A man of positive convictions, broad in his christian charity and very devoted to the church of his choice. Through his preaching many believers have been strengthened, wayward ones reclaimed and the unsaved led to accept Christ as their savior. His faith in God was unflinching and his trust in the willingness and ability of Christ to save to the uttermost never doubted.

He departed this life August 25, 1910, aged 82 years, 5 months and 19 days. He leaves an aged companion, six children, one half-brother, one half-sister, 24 grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren who deplore their loss, with many friends and acquaintances who as they learn of his death will remember his kindly words and helpful example. Funeral services were held from the U. B. church in Hudson on Sunday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Lilly, of Hicksville, Ohio, assisted by Rev. Hibbs, of Pleasant

Obituary of Joseph Barnes

JOSEPH BARNES.

Joseph Barnes was born in Columbia county, O., April 13, 1829, the son of Henry and Myra Barnes, and died at his home near Fox Lake, June 15, 1917, at the age of 88 years, two months and one day.

In 1853 he was married to Elizabeth Ewing. To them were born five children: Marcus H., Elmore M., Charles P., Ellsworth, who died in infancy; and Josephine. Oct. 21, 1863, he with his family moved to Indiana and located on what was known as the Rodding farm near Pleasant Lake. Aug. 15, 1865, he and his family moved to the farm in which he resided up to the time of his death. He became a member of the German Lutheran church when a boy and remained an ardent member throughout his life. April 10, 1916, his wife preceded him to the home above. He leaves his four children, several grand children and great grand children and a host of friends and neighbors who will ever feel the utmost respect for him and cherish the memory of him.

Mr. Barnes was the last old member of some 20 families of this vicinity who came in the early days to lay foundations in the new country and to carve out homes for themselves and their children, in the wilderness. There was no railroad, the woods and the forest yet remained; with the other pioneers he built his own home in the typical style of those early days. He often spoke of the social life of those early days, of the way they had their fun and play; in his declining years he looked back with the utmost pleasure to these early years.

In his religious life he was a devout Christian, trained in the traditions of the the Lutheran church and he retained its fervor and devoutness to the very last. He loved the old-time methods in religious services and was very fond of the old time hymns, one of which — his favorite, "Siloam," was sung at the funeral. Throughout the many years of his life he retained the good will and esteem of all his neighbors and while his work was done his friends part with him with the utmost regret.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the residence near Fox Lake. The ministers officiating were: Rev. John Humphreys and the Rev. Dr. Hershey. The interment was at Mount Zion cemetery.
